THE rapidly increasing production of tea i India and Clevion is causing the planters in next at the Theatre Royal, City Hall. High and three of their number died on their return those countries to east about for new markets in order to avoid the fall in prices which otherwise seems inevitable. The enormous strides which have been made in the world's consumption of tea during the last twenty-five years is one of the most remarkable features of modern commercial history. Production would at present, however, appear to be increasing at a quicker rate than the commumntion, and honce the desire of the Indian and revision is expected to be effected with less diffi-Carlon planters to exploit other markets than that of London. The movement is not so much in the direction of finding absolute-Iv new markets as in that of ousting China and Ispan tes from the markets which have hitherto been served by those countries. Some viers see a large quantity of tes from India was nouved into Australia and forced on to the market by the extremely cheap rates at which it was sold. TELEGRAMS.

LONDON, 17th July. THE NEW PARLIAMENT. The Parliamentary elections are finished. The following are the complete returns :--Unionist Liberals Gladstonites Paraellites

The final result of the elections shows that the forecast telegraphed by Router on the 12th inst, is not far out. The Unionist Liberals have secured one more sout, the Gladstonites four more, and the Conservatives four seats and the Parnellites one seat less than was estimated. The net result is as compared with the last election, as follows :--

Liberals — Unionista

The majority of Liberals over Conservatives then was 117; the majority of Conservatives over Liberals now is 47. The Parnellites would still give the balance of power but for the split in the Liberal ranks.—Ep. D. P. 1 IMPENDING RESIGNATION OF THE GLADSTONE MINISTRY

NOTES ON THE OPIUM THADE

- NATIVE OFFUM. Mr. T. W. Daff writes to the N. C. Daily Vews: from Chinkiang -- Some native opium in small quantities comes here and to the neighbourhood from Yuunan and Szechuen, but the bulk that now provides the central provinces of China is grown therein, especially in Anhwui, Honan, and Kinngsu. The largest market is in the latter province, at a place called Chu-chowfor where the best kind from Tong-san-baien omes. The lekin charge upon this is Tls. 43 per picul, but a great deal arrives in small quantities which pay no lekin whatever. This, against the importation of Indian drug on which Tis. 88 per pel. lekin is required—together with the import duty at the Foreign Customs, Tis 30, equal in all to Tls. 116, and which then only carries it to the immediate neighbourhood of each province where imported—for each province has its separate and full charge on all goods except those under Transit Pass—will show you how the native trade will thrive, while the foreign is so  $t \approx much$ protected.
